

Victoria Takes Second

By The Victorian Curling Association - Friday, 25 June, 2010

Victoria has taken second place in the Australian Men's Curling championships. Represented by Gerald Chick, Vaughan Rosier, Paul Meissner, Matt Panoussi and Michael Kottek; Victoria made an excellent showing bowing to the team from New South Wales in the final game of the weekend tournament.

The New South Wales team was skipped by Hugh Millikin who is recently returned from the world senior's championships and world mixed doubles championships. Helping Hugh on the ice were veteran NSW Curlers; Ian Palangio, Steve Johns and Don Glendinning.

Offering congratulations to the NSW team, the Victorian Curlers look forward to getting in more practice, and to hosting the national championships at the Melbourne Icehouse.
